

Greetings!

During this lockdown, when all of us were home bound and our activities were restricted behind the four walls, the Leadership Training Society of Loreto College hosted the event “A PLATTER OF JOY” which was an initiative to bring out the hidden culinary artist in each one of the students.

The students were marked on two criteria, the presentation of the dish and how did the participant use the dish to bring joy in someone’s life. It was an ordeal job for the judges to decide the winners but the decision has been made.

The results of the activity is as follows:

1. WINNER: RIA KHETAN (ECONOMICS HONOURS, SECOND YEAR)

2. RUNNER UP: SANJANA DASGUPTA (HISTORY HONOURS, SECOND YEAR)

3. SECOND RUNNER UP: UMME AIMAN (EDUCATION HONOURS, FIRST YEAR)

Organising the event was a delight and on behalf of the society we want to congratulate the winners and the participants.

Thank you.
