DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE FACULTY EXCHANGE

The Department of Political Science of Loreto College organised a Faculty Exchange Programme in collaboration with the Department of Political Science, Shri Shikshayatan College, with the objective of fostering academic collaboration, pedagogical exchange, and intellectual engagement between the two institutions.

As part of the programme, Dr. Siuli Mukherjee, Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science, Shri Shikshayatan College, conducted an engaging academic session on "Making of Foreign Policy and Diplomacy: Stages and Determinants (Theoretical Orientation)" on Wednesday, 13 May 2026. The lecture provided students with a comprehensive understanding of the process of foreign policy formulation, the stages involved in diplomatic engagement, and the various theoretical and practical determinants influencing foreign policy decisions. The session encouraged critical thinking and active participation among students.

In continuation of the exchange initiative, Ms. Sreeparna Dasgupta, Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science, Loreto College, participated in the programme hosted by Shri Shikshayatan College on Saturday, 16 May 2026. The exchange facilitated meaningful academic interaction between faculty members and students of both colleges and created a platform for the sharing of ideas, teaching methodologies, and disciplinary perspectives.

The Faculty Exchange Programme proved to be a valuable academic initiative that strengthened institutional ties between the two departments. It enriched the learning experience of students by exposing them to diverse pedagogical approaches and scholarly perspectives in Political Science. The programme also reaffirmed the commitment of both institutions towards collaborative learning, academic excellence, and sustained intellectual engagement.
